sol-dier boy he'll be, If he's just half as good in a trench, As he was in the park on a bench, Then ev-ry bun had bet-ter run, and find a great big lin-den tree, I know he'll be a be-to-o-ver there,
I nev-er saw him in a real good scrap,

Good Night!—You Said It!

Boy, howdy! Here's the greatest little song-hit that has tickled the keys of the piano since Uncle Sam went "over there". Humor, love and a whack at the Kaiser—set to a rollicking, marching tune—why shouldn't it be sung by every son and daughter of the U. S. A. morning, noon and night? Words by Grant Clark and Howard E. Rogers, music by Geo. W. Meyer.

Get them for your piano. Get them for your player.
Get them for your talking machine.

A Simple Song Simply Irresistible!

Everybody sings it from California to France—and then some! It's the song of the doughboy—a real Yankee melody the Boys sing over and over again. You've got to stammer the chorus because Katy's beau was tongue-tied, but that's where the fun comes in. Composed by Geoffrey O'Hara, Army Song Leader.
